In Memory of

Julia Bird Williams

Entered This Life	Entered Into Rest
February 7, 1916	December 30, 2012
Bastrop, Texas	Borger, Texas

Julia Bird Williams, 96, of Borger died Sunday, December 30, 2012.

Julia was born in Bastrop, Texas to O.T. and Maggie (Waites) Perkins on February 7, 1916. She worked very hard as church secretary and a Sunday school teacher at the New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ. Julia was very strong and independent.

Julia is preceded in death by her parents; and Aunt Ruth Waites.

She is survived by her son Leonard Williams, Jr. of Borger.

Order of Service

Processional.....Ministers and Family

Congregational Singing...."What More Can He Do"
Presiding Pastor.....Elder Lindell Brown

Scriptures

Old Testament.....Reverend Melvin Brooks
New Testament.....Elder Hughes
Prayer.....Reverend James Riles
Solo.....Katie Darden
Obituary.....Read Silently
Resolution.....Sister Gloria Bunn
Congregational Singing....."I'm Pressing On"
Remarks.....Limit to 2 Minutes
Eulogy.....Elder Harry Williams, Sr.

Departing View

Recessional

Funeral Service

New Jerusalem Church of God in Christ

2:00 p.m. Saturday, January 5, 2013

Officiating

Lindell Brown

Music

"What More Can He Do"

"I'm Pressing On"

Casket Bearers

Harry Williams, Jr. Vedeis Williams

Tremayne Williams Montrey Williams

Jeff Maxwell Roger Hughes

Interment

"Garden Of Devotion"

Highland Park Cemetery

Direction

Minton Chatwell Funeral Directors

Borger, Texas